

APPRENTICE OF PEACE YOUTH ORGANIZATION

Young Adults Council

Young Adults 18-24 participate in community workshops and Value of Life Campaign to help combat youth violence by addressing its relation to mental health.

→ Program Description

The Young Adults Council, or YAC, is a chapter of the Apprentice of Peace Youth Organization dedicated to working on the Value of Life all year-round to promote courageous conversation on the topic of mental health and youth violence.

→ List of Activities

The YAC creates its own and participates in other workshops relating to mental health. They also join town halls.

→ Districts

The YAC is based in Denver, but students nationwide can join virtually.
